

Return-to-Work Grant Request for Proposals

During the 2022 legislative session, the Utah State Legislature authorized a grant program for business entities through HB 333 to offer innovative Return To Work programs for employees throughout Utah. The purpose of this fund is to support business entities in developing new Return-to-Work programs or expanding existing ones.

Grant Goals

- Provide individuals opportunities to re-enter the workforce after an extended absence.
- Provide funding for innovative Return To Work programs that offer experience, training, and support for successful re-entry into the workforce.
- To team industry, government, and education to help individuals who want to re-engage in the workforce find meaningful professional opportunities.

Eligibility

- The primary applicant must be either a Utah employer 53B-33-109 (for-profit or not-for-profit) providing opportunities for participants to re-enter their workforce at their place of business, or a non-profit professional association facilitating the program on behalf of its members who offer such opportunities.

RFP Information Session

- When: March 11, 2025, 11:00 am – 12:00 pm

Proposal Timeline

The proposal must be submitted online here.

- Proposals Are Due no later than 5:00 p.m. on the date listed in the Review Cycle dates above. Proposals submitted after this time will be automatically considered during the next cycle.

Proposal review and questions from the Review Committee

- All submissions will be initially verified, and applicants should be prepared to respond to requests for clarification or additional information.
- After verification, the review committee will consider proposals, and applicants should be prepared to respond to final requests for clarification or additional information.

Review Committee recommendations to the Talent Board

- After the proposal review, the committee will present its recommendations to the Talent Board.

Award notification to awardees

- Upon final decision by the Talent Board, notification of awards will be sent by e-mail message to the contact listed in the application.

Submission Process

Organizations will complete the submission using the Google form, where all documents can be uploaded. An email auto-response confirming receipt of the proposal submission will automatically be generated. Business entities will be required to submit the following documents:

- Application
- Budget Worksheet
- Disclosure of all state funds received by the business (2024 H.B. 335)

Professional Associations will be required to submit the following documents:

- Application Form
- Budget Worksheet

- Disclosure of all state funds received by the association (2024 H.B. 335)
- Letter of Collaboration from their members agreeing to participate in the program and outlines the following:
  - Number of returners to be placed at the member(s)
  - Job title of the position the member(s) plans to place returners
  - Training and/or other services provided to the returners
  - Length of the returner experience

See Instructions for Proposal on page 8 for more details.

Proposal Debriefing

A debriefing meeting will be scheduled with an applicant upon request. The request must be emailed to TRUgrants@ushe.edu within five business days after the bidder is notified of an unsuccessful proposal. Talent Ready Utah will acknowledge receipt of the debriefing request within three business days.

Discussion will be limited to the requesting applicant's proposal. Comparisons between proposals or evaluations of the other proposals will not be allowed. Debriefing conferences may be conducted by phone or virtually and will be scheduled for a maximum of 30 minutes.

Program Length

This grant aims to support innovative programs that facilitate and support individuals not currently participating in the workforce. Proposed programs must last at least one year but no longer than two years.

Budget

The requested funding must be used solely for the direct costs associated with developing a new Return-to-Work program or expanding an existing one. Funds cannot be used to pay the wages of individuals participating in the program or the typical and expected cost of a new employee i.e. laptop, software licenses, supervision, and onboarding. The awardee must use grant funds for expenses specific to the program, which may include:

- Salaries & Benefits (staff providing direct services for larger programs)
- Consultants
- Marketing
- Supplies

- Education & Training
- Support Services
- Memberships

Talent Ready Utah must approve changes to the program's final budget or program scope before they are made.

Consultants/Subcontractors

The use of consultants and subcontractors is permitted for this grant. Applicants must clearly identify the proposed consultant/subcontractor, specify the services they will provide, and allocate the corresponding funding in the proposed budget. The use of any consultant/subcontractor is subject to the approval of Talent Ready Utah.

Funding

Grant funds for this initiative will be disbursed over three periods during the grant period in accordance with 2024 H.B 335. Fifty percent will be disbursed upon the execution of the Memorandum of Understanding by all parties, 40 percent will be disbursed after the program's first report is accepted (month 7), and the remaining 10 percent will be disbursed after the second report (month 13) and the program is concluded. See Reporting and Data Collection below.

If the grant funds are not used in compliance with the specified guidelines or if any disclosures are inaccurate or incomplete, the state reserves the right to reclaim the awarded funds. It is imperative that all recipients adhere strictly to the requirements to avoid any potential financial repercussions.

The business entity shall submit to any audit by Talent Ready Utah or a third party to verify reported data.

Revenue Prohibition

No revenue shall be generated as a direct result of this proposed program. The grant funds are to be used solely for the purposes outlined in the memorandum of agreement signed upon award. Any revenue generated must be reported immediately, and appropriate measures will be taken, which may include returning the funds to the state.

Reporting and Data Collection

To support Talent Ready Utah in collecting best practices, it is necessary for us to collect data from our grant recipients. The awardee shall submit two reports a year. The first report will cover the program's first six months, and the second report will provide a summary of the last six months and a summary of the year. Reports are due on the 20th business day of the 7th and 13th months after the MOU is executed. The report is due on the next business day if the 20th falls on a weekend or holiday.

The report shall include:

- Participant data, to include:
  - The number of participants served by the program.
  - A summary of the reason why the participant took a break from the workforce.
  - A summary of how long the participants were not participating in the workforce.
  - For the participants who did not complete the program, provide a summary of when they stopped and the reason why.
  - The number of participants hired or still employed at the end of the program.
- Provide a summary of the specific occupations this program is serving, including a summary of the occupation, position qualifications, and starting wage.
- A summary of the events, support services, and training offered to participants.
- An updated outline of the program to reflect any changes from the original proposal.
- Any challenges, lessons learned, successes, or best practices experienced by the program, participants, or business; and
- Documents reconciling the funds awarded by the grant.
